Project Trainee

Jul 2023 – present | Pune

During my internship, I had the opportunity to work on a critical project involving the migration of an Angular application. My responsibilities included:

- Angular Migration: Led the migration process from Angular.js to Angular[14].
- Component Development:
- Project Structure Creation: Played a key role in designing the project structure for the migrated Angular application.
- Research and Development (R&D): Conducted extensive research and experimentation to explore new techniques, libraries, and tools relevant to Angular development.
